

Ability to change the order of precedence for authentication in vWLAN.

Specifically the ability to apply mac filters for 802.1x users, example would be blocking a user by mac address and having the users role get over-ridden into a different role.