ADTRAN

Q&A

What is a signal error on an IQ Product?

Q: What is a signal error on an IQ Product?

A: A signal error is a counter which indicates the number of signaling frames received by the IQ which contain a protocol error within the link management protocol (LMI).